Important Notice to all Students – Swine Flu Outbreak

H.E. Ambassador Salem Al-Sabah and the Cultural Office are concerned with your welfare and would like to remind you to remain on the alert regarding the current Swine Flu outbreak. Whereas the cases in the U.S. have been mild, it is very important to continue to be aware of any new developments and monitor the situation taking all necessary precautions.

- Follow any instructions released by your university or local authorities.
- If you are experiencing any symptoms of the flu, see a doctor immediately and report any positive findings to the Embassy and this office.

We do not anticipate any serious health issues, but it is necessary for you to be aware of the problem and take the proper steps to preserve your health and wellbeing.
